Saturday, May 24, 2014

Simple Assault – 2300 Block Cameron Boulevard

Officers responded to a report of an assault and determined that the two subjects involved were in a non-cohabitating relationship and accusing each other of assault. There were no visible signs of injuries on either subject and neither wanted to pursue charges against the other. Both subjects were determined to be intoxicated. The subjects agreed to separate for the rest of the night, with an officer escorting one of the subjects to their residence in Mount Pleasant.

Sunday, May 25, 2014

Burglary / Grand Larceny – 1000 Block Ocean Boulevard

Officers conducting foot patrol observed a subject exiting from secured storage area underneath a local establishment with a moped. The subject then drove recklessly on the sidewalk, almost striking several pedestrians. The officers identified themselves and ordered the subject to stop. The subject then drove towards the officers and began to accelerate. Officers made contact with the subject and while attempting to place him under arrest, he became resistive. The officers determined that the subject had broken into the secured storage area and had stolen the moped. The subject was arrested and charged accordingly.

Monday, May 26, 2014

Petit Larceny – 2800 Block Palm Boulevard

Complainant reported that three NO PARKING signs had been stolen from his front yard by unknown person(s).
